FROM THE COMMITTEE...

As many of you would be aware, our President Naomi Mashford was taken ill and subsequently resigned from the MCDC Committee. We wish Naomi all the best for a speedy recovery and look forward to seeing her out and about on her ponies once again.

Our Vice President Jacquie Selles has stepped up to the plate and it is business as usual at Mount Crawford as the remaining committee members are working together to keep things running and providing our members and the wider dressage community training and competing opportunities.

The last 2 competitions have been a lot quieter than our March Bonanza, with April being CUR and CUR Bounty. We had a Novice Bounty winner with Sarah Holt obtaining the required combined score of 68% in both her tests. Sarah received a special Bounty rosette and cash prize, congratulations from all of us at MCDC. The Novice Bounty has now returned to $50 and the other levels jackpot another $5. The photographer on the day was Cassandra Whetstone.

May was Competitive and CUR, with enough entries to run 2 arenas. It was bright and sunny with a cold wind but fortunately the forecast cold change didn't eventuate until Sunday. Emma Woolman took the photographs at this one. Please check out the websites of these 2 photographers and maybe purchase a memento of your moment of glory, or a ride you were really happy with.

We have been very fortunate with our weather at the last two comps!

In June it was planned to run Working Equitation and Western Dressage but it has been decided to postpone this and instead it will be a training day with Ruth Schneeburger. Group lessons will be a maximum of 3 riders and private lessons are also available, more information and entries will be up on Nominate shortly. Southern Star Western Dressage will also be visiting on this day with their own instructor if anyone wishes to see what its all about! In addition there will be the familiar arena hire format for those who wish to "do their own thing".

July is also a CUR and CUR Bounty day, but will also include the Thoroughcare Bred to Race series, (formerly the Off The Track series). Once again, information will be on Nominate at a later date.

In other news we also wish to congratulate Julie Hobson on recently being made a life member after serving nearly 20 years on the committee!
Thankyou Julie!

We were also able to present some of our 2023 High Point winners with their prizes at our May competition.
